Dear Valli & Valli Customer,

First of all I would like to thank each and every one of you for your continued support and commitment to Valli & Valli and Fusital products these past years. At Valli & Valli, satisfaction, quality and design still remain of upmost importance to us. With this in mind, we are writing to inform you of a price increase that will become effective February 1, 2017.

We anticipate an average price increase of 5% on the majority of Valli & Valli and Fusital products.

The new prices will go into effect February 1st, 2017. We will send all new catalogs/prices dated 2017 by March 2017.

As always, along with our new price lists, we are delighted and eager to introduce some brand new products to our Valli & Valli and Fusital designs for 2017.

New Finishes: We have also developed a number of custom finishes over the years and are introducing some of these distinctive options to the market. Some of these finishes include White, Black, Dull Black, Light Black and the latest PVD Titanium along with some exciting and unique Bronze variations.

You can take a look at some of the new levers & finishes on our website: www.vallivalli-us.com

Our new Fusital catalog will also pay tribute to Patrimonio, our “heritage” of timeless design.

With all of this in mind, now is a perfect time to place a Valli order and take advantage of 2015 list prices.

Again, we want to thank you for your commitment and continued support of Valli & Valli and Fusital products. We know you have choices and are fortunate you have given us this opportunity. Should you have any questions regarding this update, please feel free to contact us.

Kind Regards and Thank You Again,

Ciao,

Marinella Formenti
Managing Director
